Army of God is a wonderful story! I've read Noah stories before but this one had a unique spin to it with the animals protecting the Ark as Noah and his family are building it. You know it's not the Bible but man! You could almost believe it is. I love how Bailey showed the steady decline of righteousness in the land.

Ground Zero. That is, in the act of singing, while they were praising, in the midst of their worship, and as a response to it, God set ambushes for their enemies, and their enemies were defeated. Praise wasn't the prelude to the battle; praise was the battle. Worship wasn't the preparation for the strategy; worship was the strategy.
